MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL. MEMPHIS, JULY 11, 1868. "All the world are best left, and the expectations of gratification which went up from him along with the political, we hope augurs a more cheerful state of affairs over the South. There is certainly a stronger feeling in reference to Southern securities than existed even a day or two ago, and the demand for them from the East proves that the far-seeing capitalists of the future of the country Memphis city bonds are especially in favor. A letter from President Davis, of the First National Bank, who is now in New York, speaks in very flattering terms of these bonds, and says that they are worth more than in this market. A lot of $10,000 was sold to-day at 67 1/2 deliverable on the 25th inst. An offer of $68 was made for another $10,000. The party had but $2000 which he let go at that figure. A large number of the bonds are ready for the Mayor's signature and will be paid out when that gentleman returns. As they will not be put upon the market as long as an investment, prices will remain firm and possibly advance rapidly. In other bonds and stocks there is nothing doing owing to the light offerings.
